Section 1 - Object

These Terms of Services are intended to define the terms and conditions for provision of service available on the website www.olymppe.in, hereinafter “the Services” and “Olympe” and define rights and obligations of the parties in this context.

All Services offered by Olympe are subject to these Terms of Services. The use of our services implies full acceptance of these last.

These Terms of Services may be changed by Olympe in which case the users of the Services will be notified and will receive a notice of thirty days from to expiry of which they will be deemed to have accepted such changes.

Section 2 - Responsibilities

Olympe provides a free hosting service, allowing the user to upload his website, without the presence of advertisements added by us. Like any host, Olympe does its best to ensure of continuity of services and ensure server stability. Nevertheless, it is expressly stated that Olympe is bound by an obligation of means and not of results. Olympe therefore not be held responsible in case of unavailability of websites users.

If necessary and in the respective interests of the parties, Olympe reserves the right to migrate the website of one or more user (s) on other servers, the operation can induce momentary outages.

In any event, Olympe shall in no event be liable for any indirect or consequential damage whatsoever suffered possibly by the User, including any financial or commercial loss, loss of profits, loss of data, even if advised of the possibility of such loss or such damage.

The User is solely responsible for it hosts and it disseminates, Olympe cannot in any way be held responsible for the legality of hosted and distributed by the User content to content.

Section 3 - Use of the Services

Registration for Services allows the user to upload one (1) site. This figure can be increased, upon specific request through the support forum, explaining the project and at the discretion of the Olympe team.

The user undertakes not to create one (1) single user’s account. Failure in this respect will result in the deletion of all accounts and data relating thereto, without the possibility to recover them.

The User is obliged to respect the limitations encrypted service, hereinafter referred to as "quotas". Each account created is assigned by default: 1 (one) site 500 MB of disk space expandable up to 2GB (see next point), 3 databases, 3 domain names, and 100 mails / day.

These quotas can be increased on specific request through the support forum, the Olympe team reserves the right to decide whether or not this increase.
